

*"Motivation is what gets you started.
Habit is what keeps you going." Jim Ryun*

Let's get Started!

COMPRO (Competency Based Program Observation) gives you insight of your employee after attending our training

Tendency Profile

Tendency Profile will give you insight of how the employee will behave in a specific scenario. This will help understand how to interact with them and navigate through the delicate human behavior.

Benefit

- Value added for SCOMA training program
- Online view vs mobile app view
- Instant profile details of employee
- Zoom direct to root cause of employee behavior
- Clustering the employee based on their tendency grouping
